

Governor's Honors Program
2020 Communicative Arts Interview Preparation

Each semifinalist will participate in a two-stage process at Berry College on February 29, 2020.

Group Discussion: Semifinalists will be given an excerpt from a piece of literature with time to read and annotate the text, in preparation for group discussion.

- The reading and discussion times will last 15 and 40 minutes respectively.
- Semifinalists will then participate in an organic group discussion driven by each other's questions and responses. The group will consist of 10-12 semifinalists, with two evaluators.
 - Evaluators will not participate in the group discussion.
- All materials will be provided on the day of.

Interview: After the group discussion semifinalists will have a 10-15 minute individual interview.

- Semifinalists should not bring writing samples or a resume.

Both the group discussion and individual interview are mandatory for consideration to the summer program. Semifinalists should anticipate being on campus between 2 and 2 ½ hours.
